

Division of Humanities Community Outreach Awards 2008

Applications are invited for the 2008 Division of Humanities awards to recognise outstanding achievements in outreach to and engagement with the wider community, including businesses, schools, other organisations, and the general public. These awards recognise the efforts and achievements of continuing, casual, adjunct and general staff, students, and Societies or Foundations within the Division in:

- Fostering research engagement between the university and the community
- Fostering learning and teaching engagement between the university and the community

Staff who received a Divisional Community Outreach Award in 2007 are not permitted to be nominated in the same category as last year, but may be nominated in another of the categories listed above.

Awards will be announced at a Divisional meeting on 24 October. Successful applicants will receive a certificate and a prize of $1000 which may be used for furthering community outreach and engagement as (e.g.) a contribution towards the cost of an outreach event, in the form of teaching or marking relief, or in another way as agreed with the Dean of Humanities. Up to 2 awards will be made.

Enquiries: 12-30 September: Estela Valverde (x 6882; estela.valverde@mq.edu.au);
1-9 October: Malcolm Choat (x 7561; mchoat@hmn.mq.edu.au)

Form of Application

Applicants should be nominated by someone other than the proposed prizewinner, and seconded. Applications should comprise a statement, no longer than one A4 page in 12pt font, giving the details of the applicant, nominator, and seconder, and explaining how the applicant's activities have promoted community outreach and engagement. Supporting evidence may be attached.

Selection Committee

Applications will be assessed by the Chair of the Divisional Marketing Committee along with an invited assessor and the Dean of Humanities.

Applications

Applications are to be made directly to Carlene Kirvan, W6A 222, by no later than 5pm, 10 October 2008. No late applications will be accepted. Only one copy of the application is needed.
